Downton Abbey Filming Tours

Stories from Downton Abbey's Yew Tree Farm

Cogges Manor Farm in Witney, Oxfordshire, is the stunning location of Downton Abbey's Yew Tree Farm.

It is a beautifully preserved collection of Cotswold stone farm buildings set in its own historic grounds. Cogges will be familiar to many as a popular location for TV and the big screen, with shows from BBC's Countryfile to ITV period dramas Downton Abbey or Arthur & George.

Cogges offers visitors a unique chance to see where Downton Abbey was filmed and hear stories from this internationally acclaimed television series. Yew Tree Farm is home to the Drewe family in series 4 & 5, where Lady Edith's child is brought up, and later in series 6, home to Mr Mason. Dame Maggie Smith and characters Tom Branson, Lady Edith and Lady Mary featured in episodes filmed in the manor house kitchen and farmyard.

Cogges has beautiful natural grounds and filming locations are very close together, allowing you to make the most of your visit and take in the homemade cakes and excellent teas and coffees in the Cogges Kitchen.

There is a film in the manor house which charts the transformation of Cogges into Downton Abbey's Yew Tree Farm, with interviews by the series Producer and Location Manager. You can also view a collection of stills and behind the scenes photos from the show as well as some interesting Downton memorabilia, including Marigold's birth certificate!

Services of a guide are available if required, giving detailed tours about filming at Cogges and the history of the farmstead for those families who lived and worked here.

Coach parking is an easy, short walk from the site.

The Cogges Kitchen café on site serves tea, coffee, light lunches and homemade cakes and scones. Extra dedicated seating is available for large groups. Free tea and coffee for coach drivers.

The shop sells local food and craft, books, toys and souvenirs.

Toilets include disabled facilities. Cogges is a relatively flat site; currently however, access to wheelchairs is limited in the house. Please ask if you need more information or have any questions.
